

Families and committed relationships

Filling the gaps about human reproduction

1. During puberty, girls' bodies produce eggs in the _____ and boys' bodies produce _____.
2. Girls start having _____ each month to expel unfertilised eggs.
3. Sperm is produced in a boy's _____.
4. _____, or sex, is when a male puts his penis inside a female's vagina.
5. If a couple wants to have sex, they should both _____.
6. When a male and a female have sex and sperm reaches an egg, a baby can begin to grow in the female _____.
7. When a baby is growing inside a woman, it is called a _____.
8. When a woman is going to have a baby, she is _____.
9. Some couples cannot have a baby naturally. They could try to adopt a child or use a medical process called _____.
10. A baby is usually born after around nine _____.
11. Some babies are born vaginally and others are born through an operation called a _____.
12. A woman has wider _____ to make room for a baby in her body and to help with giving birth to her baby.

pregnant

IVF

sperm

Caesarean section

agree

periods

months

hips

ovaries

testicles

womb

sexual intercourse

foetus